

Access to business parks

South Yorkshire's Dearne, Rother and Lower Don Valleys were badly hit by the decline of traditional industries in the 1980s. New business parks have since opened up offering new jobs. South Yorkshire PTE worked with local businesses to provide a 20p a trip shuttle bus every twenty minutes from a refurbished railhead at Swinton. The service has proved so popular it now operates without subsidy on weekdays during the day.